

Hospitality Rider for Band and Crew

This hospitality rider outlines the specific requirements and preferences of the Snails band consisting of 4 musicians, 1 driver, and 1 sound engineer. These provisions are essential to ensuring the comfort and well-being of the band and crew during their performances and travels.

ACCOMMODATION

1. At least 3 stars hotel accommodations with a minimum of 4 double tweens each with a private bathroom.
2. The rooms should be non-smoking and located in a secure, quiet area of the hotel.
3. Wi-Fi access in all rooms and common areas.
4. Late check-out options on departure day.

MEALS

1. All meals for band members, driver, and sound engineer should be provided.
2. No dietary restrictions
3. No fast food
4. Bottled water, assorted non-alcoholic beverages, dry red wine and a variety of fresh fruits, healthy snacks should be available in backstage.

BACKSTAGE REQUIREMENTS

1. A well-stocked dressing room with a variety of beverages (including water, soft drinks, and energy drinks) and healthy snacks.
2. Comfortable seating and mirrors with good lighting for makeup and dressing.
3. Towels, toiletries, and personal hygiene products.
4. Restroom facilities.

SOUND AND STAGE SETUP

1. High-quality sound system and equipment suitable for the band's performance style and venue size.
2. Adequate time for soundcheck before each performance.
3. Stage setup with sufficient lighting, fog machines, and any specific effects required by the band.
4. One dedicated stage technician
5. One dedicated vj/light technician

MISCELLANEOUS

1. An on-site liaison to assist with any logistical or hospitality-related issues.
2. Guest list for the band's family, friends, and VIPs.
3. One parking lot for the tour bus in the hotel area and stage area

NOTE!

The band and crew appreciate your efforts in ensuring a smooth and successful performance.

Flexibility is valued in case of unforeseen circumstances.

Any changes or adjustments to the rider should be communicated and confirmed in writing with the band's management in advance.